

Part-time Museum Educator

Phillips Academy's Robert S. Peabody Museum of Archaeology is a teaching museum which offers outreach to Native American communities, amateur and professional archaeologists, volunteers, interns and the general public.

The Museum seeks a part-time Educator to teach, develop curriculum, mentor students, network with faculty, plan and chaperone one to two annual trips up to three weeks in duration, and provide general administrative support to the museum. B.A. in anthropology, archaeology, Native American studies, or museum studies with an emphasis on anthropology and/or archaeology required (Master's preferred). The qualified candidate will also have two years of teaching experience at advanced high school or college level, the ability to solidly connect with bright and motivated young people, familiarity with Native American cultures and history, archaeological field experience, museum work, and a high comfort level with an ethnically diverse audience.

Part-time, 20 hours per week, full-year position with partial benefits. Full background check required.

Please send resume and cover letter by Friday, December 21, 2007 to Human Resources, Phillips Academy, 180 Main Street, Andover, MA 01810 or email same to hr@andover.edu. EOE.

Posted 11/30/07