M.A. Degree Received (Date)

List required coursework for M.Phil. Degree

A minimum of ten courses beyond the M.A. degree, of which seven must be taken for E credit. Five of those seven are usually seminars or advanced research courses. Students must show that they have taken a lecture course for letter grade in each of the following periods of architectural history: Ancient, Medieval, Renaissance and Baroque, and Modern. It is recommended that student take advantage of the departments's offerings in non-Western architectural history. A course in a Non-Western field is defined as a course taken in one of the following M.Phil. programs/fields: East Asian Art and Archaeology, South Asian Art and Archaeology, the Arts and Architecture of the Lands of Islam, Pre-Columbian Art and Archaeology, African and Native American Art and Archaeology. Non-architects may take courses in graphics, design, and/or structures in the graduate School of Architecture, Planning, and Preservation with the joint approval of their advisors and that school (although such courses do not count for graduate credit toward the degree).
