

AHIS W3939 "Travel Seminar Berlin Live: German Painting from Romanticism to Expressionism"

Professor Cordula Grewe

The selection of participants will be based on overall academic background, general academic performance and your personal statement (see No. 3 overleaf).

Return the Application Form by Monday, November 17th to 826 Schermerhorn Hall

1. Personal information:

Name: .....

Columbia e-mail: .....

Additional contact information: .....

Major: .....

Minor/Concentration: .....

School: .....

Standing as of Fall 2003:      Junior                      Senior

2. Academic Background:

A. Courses taken in nineteenth- and twentieth-century art, or history (indicate if it was a seminar or lecture course):

| Semester/Year | Title | Instructor | Type (seminar orlecture) |
|-------------------|-------|------------|------------------------------|
|-------------------|-------|------------|------------------------------|

B. What languages, other than English, do you speak/read (indicate level of proficiency):

3. Personal Statement:

Please specify the reasons for your interest in the seminar in a short typewritten essay (not to exceed 500 words). Indicate how your personal expertise or academic background could contribute to the success of the class.