it is his impression that subject is attempting to form a nucleus of followers within the NOI in order to take over the NOI on the death of ILIJAH MUHAMMAD, although subject continues to openly refer to MUHAMMAD's son, WALLACE, as the logical successor. U.S.

During the same period, [REDACTED] also stated that in his opinion, subject is considering running for public office in Harlem, possibly for the United States Congress, in order to obtain power for himself. U.S. b7D

B. Subject's Contact with Cuban Premier
FIDEL CASTRO, at New York, New York,
September, 1960 U.S.

[REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] advised on September 21, 1960, that in conversation with subject on that date, subject stated that he had visited with CASTRO for approximately 30 minutes in his Hotel Theresa room. The source advised that LITTLE stated that during this visit he told CASTRO, in reference to CASTRO himself, that usually when one sees a man whom the United States is against, there is something good in that man. To this CASTRO replied that only the people in power in the United States are against him, not the masses. LITTLE further expressed the opinion that any man who represented such a small country that would stand up and challenge a country as large as the United States must be sincere. U.S. b7D visited by MALCOLM X, leader of the New York Muslim population, who in his role as a member of the 28th Precinct Community Council constituted a one man welcoming committee.

The "Pittsburgh Courier", a weekly newspaper published in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, dated October 1, 1960, New York edition, contained an article headlined "Malcolm X Explains Two-hour Visit to Castro at Theresa." This article reflected that subject stated that he went to see CASTRO in his capacity as a member of the 23th Precinct Community Council which had been formed to greet prominent United Nations members who visited Harlem.

This article further reflected that subject denied any connection with CASTRO, and subject also stated, according to the article: "Premier CASTRO has also come out against lynching, which is also more than EISENHOWER has done. CASTRO has also taken a more open stand for civil rights for black Cubans. He wants to see CASTRO as a Muslim."

Earlier in the article, subject was quoted as saying: "FIDEL CASTRO has denounced racial discrimination in Cuba which is more than President EISENHOWER has done here in America."

This same "Pittsburgh Courier" in their New York edition dated October 15, 1960, contained an article which reflected that subject had tendered a bitter resignation from membership on the Welcoming Committee of the 26th Precinct Community Council, which committee had been designated by the 28th Precinct of the New York City Police Department to welcome ruling heads of state to Harlem during the General Assembly session of the United Nations for the purpose of avoiding any embarrassing incidents.

This article quoted the subject as saying that he resigned because the police and newspapers had failed to refute "barefaced lies, labeling us as lawless terrorists, subversive Communists, seditious, etc."

C. Other Miscellaneous Activity

On April 2, 1960, subject appeared as the guest on the radio program of ~~JERRY WILLIAMS~~, radio station WHEX in Boston, Massachusetts, where he discussed the NOI with WILLIAMS. WILLIAMS has his own radio program nightly, except Sunday, from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00a.m., and on Saturday evenings, he frequently invites a guest with whom he discusses some controversial subject and permits his listeners to telephone questions to the guest.

The "Los Angeles Herald Dispatch", a weekly newspaper published in Los Angeles, California, dated May 12, 1960, contained an article catelined New York, which reflected that subject spoke on May 4, 1960, at New York's Queens College where he defended the documents of Islam as taught by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. The article indicated that the meeting was sponsored by the Queens College chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

The "Pittsburgh Courier", a weekly newspaper published in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, New York edition dated August 6, 1960, contained a photograph of subject talking with two others on New York City radio station WLIB. The caption under the photograph indicated that the subject appeared on the WLIB program "The Editor Speaks" which is on each Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to noon.
