

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR COMPUTING ACTIVITIES

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY SYMPOSIUM

Friday, September 30, 1988

COMPUTING AT THE UNIVERSITY: PAST AND FUTURE

10:00 a.m. Coffee

10:30 a.m. Welcome: Dorothy M. Marshall, Assistant Vice President for Administrative Systems
Robert F. Goldberger, Provost
Norman Mintz, Executive Vice-President for Academic Affairs
Elaine Sloan, Vice-President for Information Services and University Librarian

11:00 a.m. Keynote Address: "Looking Back and Looking Forward"
Ken King, President, Educom
Dr. King founded the Computer Center in 1963, and directed it for its first eight years.
Introduced by Jessica Gordon, Associate Professor, School of Library Service

12:00 a.m. Lunch

1:45 p.m. Pioneers
Theodore R. Bashkow, Professor of Computer Science
Vladimir Ussachevsky, Professor of Music
Cyrus Levinthal, William R. Kenan Jr. Professor of Biological Sciences
Introduced by Jessica Gordon

3:00 p.m. Break

3:15 p.m. "Riding the Wave - Computing in the 90's"
Herbert Schorr, Director, Enterprise Systems, IBM Corporation
Introduced by Dorothy M. Marshall

4:00 p.m. Break

4:15 p.m. Panel discussion: Future Trends in University Computing
Paul Douglas Clayton, Professor of Medical Informatics
Robert Wedgeworth, Dean, School of Library Service
Ira Fuchs, Vice President for Computing and Information Technology, Princeton University
Introduced and Moderated by Richard Sacks,
Assistant Vice President for Academic Information Systems

ALL MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND
Horace Mann Auditorium, Teachers College, 120th and Broadway