President’s Council on Student Affairs

Purpose:
A University-wide council formed by President Bollinger to provide a more direct link between the president and provost, and the student body and administrators who address student issues. The council meets with the president and the provost three times a year to bring important community matters and other issues of student concern directly to their attention. Also, the council is designed to supplement other interactions between the president and the provost and students throughout the year.

Membership:
President Bollinger
Provost Brinkley
One student each from CC, SEAS, GS and GSAS
Deans of Students from CC, SEAS, GS and GSAS
One student each from two Professional Schools (on rotating basis)
Deans of Students from two other Professional Schools (on rotating basis)
University Chaplain
Executive Vice President, Administrative and Student Services

Selection of Students:
Student Councils for each school will nominate three students, all of whom are not officers. From this list, President Bollinger and Provost Brinkley will select the student who will join the council.

Professional School representation:
Each year, there will be representation from four professional schools: two students from two separate schools and two deans of students from non-corresponding schools.

Frequency:
3 times a year
Representation:

Permanent representation from: CC
SEAS
GSAS
University Chaplain
Executive VP, Administrative and Student Services

Rotating representation from:
