

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH AND ROMANCE PHILOLOGY
GRADUATE STUDENT CHECKLIST
Requirements for the M.A. Degree

Note: P = Pass; F = Fail; E = Letter Grade; R = Audit (instructor's permission required)

Requirement	Course	Semester	Grade
Proseminar	G8091		P/F
M.A. Essay <sup>1</sup>	G8092		E =
Stylistics	G6005		E =
Literary Theory Course (or equivalent) <sup>2</sup>			E =
Century Survey <sup>3</sup>			E =
Century Survey <sup>3</sup>			E =
Century Survey <sup>3</sup>			E =
Seminar 6000 – 8000 <sup>4</sup>			E =
Seminar 6000 – 8000 <sup>4</sup>			R
Seminar 6000 – 8000 <sup>4</sup>			R

- <sup>1</sup> M.A. Essay – An Essay of no more than 50 pages is required. Students are strongly encouraged to write the Essay in French. Candidates must defend the Essay before a committee of two faculty members (see Student Guide). If you registered for G8092y (the Master's Thesis) before defending the M.A. Essay, you will receive the grade of "Incomplete." Make sure a "change of grade" form is filed after you defend.
- <sup>2</sup> Please consult the Director of Graduate Studies for the list of approved courses.
- <sup>3</sup> You may elect to take a Qualifying Exam in lieu of any of the Century Surveys.
- <sup>4</sup> Up to two 6000-8000 level seminars or the equivalent may be taken outside the department with prior approval of the Director of Graduate Studies.

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH AND ROMANCE PHILOLOGY
GRADUATE STUDENT CHECKLIST
Requirements for the M.Phil. and Ph.D. Degrees

Note: P = Pass; F = Fail; E = Letter Grade; R = Audit (instructor's permission required)

Requirement	Course	Semester	Grade
Literary Theory Course (or equivalent) <sup>1</sup>			E =
History and Structure of the French Language	G6001		E =
Century Survey <sup>2</sup>			E =
Century Survey <sup>2</sup>			E =
Century Survey <sup>2</sup>			E =
Seminar 6000-8000 <sup>3</sup>			E =
Seminar 6000-8000 <sup>3</sup>			E =
Seminar 6000-8000 <sup>3</sup>			R
Seminar 6000-8000 <sup>3</sup>			R
Practicum in French Language Pedagogy	G4025		E =

Additional Requirements for the M.Phil.:

- Francophone Literature (at least one of the 6000-8000 level courses taken for the M.A. or the M.Phil. must be on Francophone literature—does not apply to students who entered the program before fall 2004). Enter course number here: (E)
- Reading Proficiency in Latin: (P/F)
- Reading Proficiency in a modern language: (P/F)
- Explication de texte: (E)
- Orals: (E)

<sup>1</sup> Please consult the Director of Graduate Studies for list of approved courses.

<sup>2</sup> You may elect to take a Qualifying Exam in lieu of any of the Century Surveys.

<sup>3</sup> Up to two 6000-8000 level seminars or the equivalent may be taken outside the Department with prior approval of the Director of Graduate Studies.

Requirement for the Ph.D. degree:

- A dissertation, written and defended in English. The advisable length of the dissertation is 250-300 pages.