An Independent Nonprofit 501(c)(3) Organization invites you to a presentation/reception of the

Big Idea Competition
A Business Plan Competition Open to All

Thursday February 7, 2008
7:00 PM

Columbia University - Business School
Warren Hall
Room: Feldberg Space
1125 Amsterdam Ave (between 115 & 116 Str)
New York, NY 10025

To RSVP please visit www.hbngroup.org/ columbia2008
or for additional information please contact:
Margarita Tsoutsoura: mt2235@columbia.edu or (917) 403 8449
Vassilis Bakopoulos: vassilis@mbriyo.com or (646) 436 1119

WHAT:
The Hellenic Business Network Big Idea Competition (HBN-BIC) is a new initiative to transform the best ideas into successful companies through a process of mentorship, team-building, and networking, culminating in a final contest where the winning business plan will be awarded a substantial sum, press coverage, and support hopefully leading to significant funding and a successful startup company formed.

WHO:
HBN-BIC is open to everyone and follows the ancient Greek tradition of acceptance and meritocracy focused on attracting and promoting great business ideas. Everyone can enter - the best business plan wins!

WHY:
Here’s your chance to share your big idea with the world, receive mentorship/feedback from established entrepreneurs and experts, build your team and vie for a chance to win up to $20,000 to help launch your business!

For more information on the HBN-BIC, to submit your idea on-line and to learn about key events and resources, visit www.hbngroup.org/ bic or contact us at HBN-BIC@hbngroup.org or call us at (888) 251-5568