

The Program in Hellenic Studies at Columbia University invites you to a bilingual reading and presentation with the poet
KATERINA ANGHELAKI-ROOKE, her translator KAREN VAN DYCK, and their editor JEFFREY SHOTTS (Graywolf)

READINGS FROM:

THE SCATTERED PAPERS OF PENELOPE:

NEW AND SELECTED POEMS

*I wasn't weaving, I wasn't knitting
I was writing something erasing and being erased
under the weight of the word
—from "Penelope Says"*

TUESDAY 13 OCTOBER, 2009

6:00 PM, a reception to follow

Ella Weed Room

223 Milbank Hall

Barnard College

Information: hg2252@columbia.edu

Please turn over for directions.

---

Co-sponsored by the Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation, the Mellon Foundation as a part of the "Translation Across the Disciplines" initiative at Barnard,
the Modern Greek Studies Association, Graywolf Press, the Institute for Research on Women and Gender at Columbia.