

Main Speaker: Lindsay Olesberg

Lindsay Olesberg is the Associate Regional Director of Missions for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship as well as Scripture Manager for InterVarsity's Urbana missions conventions. She specializes in training campus ministers in inductive Bible study, spiritual formation, and leadership. Lindsay has ministered for over 20 years with IVCF/USA.

She has a B.A. in Asian Studies (Pomona) and is currently working on a Masters of Theology (Fuller). Her passion is to help God's people enter into God's Word and go out to God's mission.

She also serves on the board of Mission America Coalition (U.S. Lausanne committee). Lindsay has developed expertise in creating highly interactive inductive Bible study experiences for large conventions, and spent a year working with the Lausanne Movement on the program leadership team for Lausanne's 3rd global congress.

Lindsay and her family live in Iowa City, IA. Her husband, Jon, is a physicist at the University of Iowa. They have two teenage children, Michael and Mary. Lindsay enjoys running, reading, and international travel.

telos: n. [Greek] (1) end, goal, outcome; (2) to the end, to the last; (3) in the end, finally; (4) forever or decisively, to the uttermost, fully

We will come away from Telos '12 with the ability to study the Bible, experience Jesus from this ancient text, facilitate this skill to others, and grasp the missional purpose of the work God has called us into.

Theme Scripture:

Mark 1:17

"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of people."

GOD'S MISSION AND OUR CALLING

Jesus calls us to follow him. But what exactly is he calling us to follow him into? More than just a job, our work is understood to be a calling from God to further his purposes in the world. But what exactly is God's mission for our work? How do the pursuits of our academic disciplines and the pursuits of our spiritual disciplines engage with God's purposes for the world?

Join us at Telos '12 as we enter into the life and teaching of Jesus through the Gospel of Mark, particularly God's mission in the world and his invitation to us as a community in it.

Breathe deeply God's transforming love and care through quality Bible study in the company of God's people. We will not just be reading scripture. Scripture will read us.
