STUDENT SENATE
Columbia School of Law

Recognition Application
Fall 2007-Spring 2008

Please both submit copy to the Senate Folder at Student Services and email to senate@law.columbia.edu.

Student Organization: Columbia Law Duke Society
Name of Student Submitting Application: Andrew Wolstan
E-mail: azw2102@columbia.edu
Telephone: 310-780-3447

A. Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability:

1. Does the organization give senate funding to support political parties, PACs, or other political organizations?
   Yes  No

2. Does the organization perform activities similar or identical to those already performed by another student organization?
   Yes  No

3. Does the organization operate for the financial gain of its members?
   Yes  No

4. Is the organization currently recognized by any division or office of Columbia University other than the Student Senate of Columbia Law School?
   Yes  No

5. Does the organization limit membership beyond enrollment at Columbia Law School (dues, mandatory attendance, etc.)?
   Yes  No

IF YOU ANSWERED YES TO ANY OF THESE QUESTIONS, PLEASE SUBMIT A WRITTEN EXPLANATION ATTACHED TO THIS FORM DESCRIBING THE ORGANIZATION’S ACTIVITY.
B. Please submit the following materials.

1. The Constitution and By-Laws of the petitioning organization which must describe:
   a. The organization’s name;
   b. The organization’s purpose;
   c. The procedure for selecting and removing leadership;
   d. The duties of leadership, if any;
   e. The procedure for arriving at decisions;
   f. The requirements for membership or leadership, if any;
   g. An affirmation that the organization’s membership and leadership policy is in accordance with the Student Senate Nondiscrimination Policy set forth in Section 6(B)(5) of the Senate’s Bylaws.

2. A list of at least seven (7) current members, which shall comprise of at least two (2) members currently serving as leaders of the organization.
3. A signed petition for consideration (below).
4. A list of all leaders of the organization and contact information.

Please Note: Recognition by the CLS Student Senate of an organization may be withdrawn should any such organization be found to have violated any Senate guideline or University regulation pertinent to student organizations.

If you have any questions please feel free to e-mail Kathrin Schwesinger, Senate Parliamentarian, at sks2139@columbia.edu.

- For student leaders having trouble finding a copy of your organization’s constitutions, 2006-2007 Organizational constitutions are available on the G: Drive.
2007-2008 Student Group Recognition Petition

We, the undersigned officers of Columbia Law Duke Society, have read Section Six of the By-Laws of the Senate Constitution – “Requirements for Recognition as a Columbia Law School Senate Recognized Organization.” We understand the requirements stated therein, and promise to adhere to them for the 2007-2008 school year. We have enclosed all of the materials requested and required to obtain recognition, and we hereby petition the Student Senate for recognition as a Columbia Law School student group for the present academic year.

Signed,

Signed ____________  Andrew Wolstan  azw2102@columbia.edu
Signature   Name   Email

Signed ____________  Matt Yelovich  matt.yelovich@gmail.com
Signature   Name   Email

Date: 2/13/08
Columbia Law Duke Society Constitution and By-Laws

A. Name – Columbia Law Duke Society

B. Purpose – To fraternize with other Duke University alumni and enthusiasts, gain insight into careers, life and to have other positive associations associated with uniting with others having a common interest

C. Leadership selection – Leadership has to be voted in by a majority of those members choosing to vote and they must be removed by a ¾ vote by those members choosing to vote in the election

D. Duties of Leadership - The sole duty of leadership is to represent the best interests of the group within the bounds of the Columbia Student Senate regulations and the law

E. Arriving at decisions – The decisions shall be made according the responsibilities of each individual position within the group, excepting financial decisions which shall be made following a discussion with officers of the group

F. Membership requirements – The requirements for membership must be a genuine enthusiasm for fraternization with Duke University alumni or a general enthusiasm for those things associated with

G. The organization’s membership and leadership policy is in accordance with the Student Senate Nondiscrimination Policy set forth in Section 6(B)(5) of the Senate’s Bylaws.

7 Members:
1. Andrew Wolstan
2. Matt Yelovich mattyelovich@gmail.com and (610) 506 - 3657
3. CJ Perry
4. Dhawal Sharma
5. Jantira Supawong
6. Will Leavitt
7. Jason Allegrante

The bold are two members of the leadership