COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL STUDENT SENATE

A Resolution To Designate March 26, 2009 as CLS College Pride Day

March 9, 2009

SPONSOR Dan Y. Shin

WHEREAS the people of Columbia Law School come from a wide variety of backgrounds and life experiences;

The rich diversity of our school should be celebrated;

Celebrating our diversity fosters a stronger sense of community at our school;

An element of this diversity is the tremendously broad array of college institutions attended by our students, faculty, and staff.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL STUDENT SENATE to designate March 26, 2009 as CLS College Pride Day;

That all students, faculty, and staff shall be encouraged to wear something that represents the college institution or institutions which they attended;

That Student Senate shall advertise CLS College Pride Day to the student body through email announcements, flyers posted around campus, and other appropriate means;

That Student Senate encourages the law school administration to disseminate news of CLS College Pride Day to all faculty and staff of the law school, encouraging them to participate;

That the Student Senate President transmit a copy of this resolution, with the Senate’s endorsement, to the Deans of Faculty and Students.

This resolution expires at the end of the 2008-09 academic year.
