DESCRIPTION: This is a collection of letters, documents, accounts, papers, broadsides, pamphlets and other printed and manuscript materials assembled by Mr. Seymour Adelman and presented to the Libraries in a series of gifts. The material ranges in date from 1724 to 1945 and is largely Americana having to do principally with banking business, the arts and sciences, agriculture, the free press and commerce in the 18th and 19th centuries. Included are a number of autograph letters by Joseph Henry, William Henry, Jr., and Joel Roberts Poinsett. There are also a number of letters addressed to Joseph Story and John B. Jervis. There is a group of letters from the immediate family of John Jay containing references to him and another group of documents and letters by and concerning Matthew Clarkson.
