DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts, reports, documents, notes, clippings, and other printed materials of Henry DeWitt Barnett, 1917- , a missionary in China and religious official.

H. DeWitt Barnett was a Y.M.C.A. executive in New York from 1946 until 1965. From 1965 until 1971 he served as Quaker International Affairs Representative for East Asia with the American Friends Service Committee, based in Tokyo. From 1971 until 1982 he has been a consultant in Hong Kong to the Department of East Asia and the Pacific of the Division of Overseas Ministries of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in developing a U.S.-China people-to-people program.

The files contain correspondence with missionaries, journalists, and organizations promoting Chinese-American relations, memoranda, periodicals, reports of travelers in China, and other related materials.

While there are some earlier materials, these files deal mostly with the period from 1970 to 1981.

Series II (1984 Gift) contains correspondence, memoranda, manuscripts, reports, documents and printed material, mainly about China, the Barnett family and the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), 1974-1982.
