DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, papers, manuscripts, documents, photographs and printed materials of Michel Butor (1926- ), a leading philosophical writer in the French "new novel" school and university professor in the United States as well as in Europe. Much of the correspondence concerns his American teaching and lecture engagements, primarily at the University of Kentucky, Louisville. There are also letter from his colleagues in France, including Françoise Van Rossum-Guyon, with a copy of her Introduction to an edition of Balzac's Le Père Goriot with Butor's critical letter for the publisher. There are critical and biographical manuscripts about Butor, and several printed works, each inscribed with a note by its author.

For list of collection see verso.
