Chinese Oral History Project.
ca. 10,600 items (83 boxes, 251 v., 5 card files, 2 card drawers)

Summary: The collection consists of the original group of memoirs prepared by the East Asian Institute of Columbia University, The China Missionaries Project compiled by Claremont Graduate School, the Academis Sinica Project, and miscellaneous related manuscripts. Also included as a separately numbered series are the office files of the Chinese Oral History Project, containing correspondence and material relating to the interviews, with some drafts of transcripts, tapes, and photographs.

Finding aids: Register, 1 vol.

Restrictions on access and use:
See CHINESE ORAL HISTORY CARD FILE for restrictions in individual memoirs and related papers.
Readers must use microform copies for memoirs published in that format.
Memoirs, published in microform, may not circulate via interlibrary loan.
Microform copies of individual memoirs may be ordered directly from the Columbia University Oral History Research Office (801 Butler Library).
Memoirs published in microform are: Franklin Lien Ho; Shih Hu; Wellington Koo; Han-hun Li; Huang Li; Shu-hua Li; Tingfu Fuller Tsiang; & Shun-sheng Tso.
Not more than 25% of any published or unpublished memoir produced by the Columbia University Chinese Oral History Project may be photocopied. A microfilm of the entire memoir may be ordered if there are no donor restrictions.
Unpublished memoirs produced by the Academia Sinica and the China Missionaries Project may not be photocopied. For permission to photocopy from these memoirs, write directly to the Institute of Modern History, Academia Sinica, NanKang, Taipei, Taiwan; or China Missionaries Project, Claremont Graduate School Oral History Program, 901 North College, Claremont, CA 91711.
Related papers and office files of the Chinese Oral History Project may be photocopied under the regular policy of the Rare Book and Manuscript Library, except for those which are restricted. For restrictions, see the register.

ID: NYCR89-A143
CHINESE ORAL HISTORY PROJECT
AUTOBIOGRAPHIES AND RELATED PAPERS

ACCESS AND PHOTOREPRODUCTION RULES
March, 2000

I. ACCESS

1. SEE CHINESE ORAL HISTORY CARD FILE for restrictions on individual memoirs and related papers.

2. SEE CHINESE ORAL HISTORY REGISTER for description of memoirs and related papers.

3. READERS MUST USE MICROFORM COPIES for memoirs published in that format.

4. PUBLISHED MEMOIRS IN MICROFORM MAY NOT CIRCULATE VIA INTERLIBRARY LOAN. Microform copies of individual memoirs may be ordered directly from the Columbia University Oral History Research Office, 801 Butler Library. For list of published memoirs, see below.

II. PHOTOREPRODUCTION

1. No more than 25 percent of any published or unpublished memoir produced by the Columbia Chinese Oral History Project may be photocopied. A microfilm may be ordered of the entire memoir IF THERE ARE NO DONOR RESTRICTIONS!

2. Unpublished memoirs produced by the Academia Sinica and the China Missionaries Project MAY NOT BE PHOTOCOPIED. (For permission to photocopy from these people write directly to Institute of Modern History, Academia Sinica, NanKang, Taipei, Taiwan, or China Missionaries Project, Claremont Graduate School Oral History Program, 901 North College, Claremont, CA 91711.)

3. Related papers and Office Files of the Chinese Oral History Project MAY BE PHOTOCOPIED under the regular policy of the Rare Book and Manuscript Library, except for any files that may be restricted. For restrictions see register.

III. MEMOIRS PUBLISHED IN MICROFORM:

Franklin Lien Ho
Shih Hu
Wellington Koo
Han-hun Li
Huang Li
Shu-hua Li
Tingfu Fuller Tsiang
Shun-sheng Tso