DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, documents, portraits and photographs of the Deutsches Haus, originally founded in 1910 at 419 West 117th Street; closed in April 1917; reestablished in January 1921 at 423 West 117th Street; moved to 548 West 113th Street in 1967 and to 420 West 116th Street in 1975. The correspondence files consist of General Correspondence for the letters K-M, 1929-1943 and a special group which relate to the founding of the Haus in 1929. There are letters and tributes from many well know people on the occasion of the opening of the Haus. There is also correspondence documenting its function as an information center for German Studies. Among the correspondents represented are: Max Brod, George Eastman, Kuno Francke, Hugo von Hofmannsthal, Thomas Mann, Edwin Markham, Andrew Mellon, Max Planck, Arthur Schnitzler, Jakob Wassermann, Arnold Zweig, and Stephan Zweig.

Also included is the guest register of the Deutsches Haus, 1911-1975, containing the signatures of numerous visitors to the Haus, with occasional invitations and announcements of activities pasted in, as well as photographs of a spring 1971 party. In addition there are a few letters of congratulations on the reopening of the Haus in 1967 and photographs of one of its buildings on West 117th Street. There is one oversize folder of signed and inscribed, signed and unscribed photographs and other portraits.
