DESCRIPTION:

A collection of letters written to Havelock Ellis (1859-1939), including several drafts of his replies, and a few letters to his executrix, Mrs. Francoise Lafitte-Gvon. Nearly all of the letters relate to Ellis's writings and their influence, as well as the work of his correspondents in the fields of sex studies, pornography, birth control, and pacifism. Included among the correspondents are Henri Barbusse, André Breton, Elie Faure, Robert J. Gibbings, Julian Huxley, Desmond MacCarthy, Bronislaw Malinowski, Naomi Mitchison, John Middleton Murry, Henry S. Salt, and Marie Stopes.

For a complete list of correspondents, see verso of this sheet.
