DESCRIPTION:

The correspondence, papers, and documents of Christine Ladd Franklin (1847-1930) and her husband, Fabian Franklin (1853-1939), relating to their work in the fields of psychology and logic. The papers are mainly those of Christine Franklin, who lectured at Columbia University from 1914-1927, and who was well-known for her method of reducing all syllogisms to a single formula, and for her contributions to knowledge relating to color vision. Among the selected autographs are 14 letters from Henry Holt to Fabian Franklin and 4 letters from Bertrand Russell to Christine Ladd Franklin.
