DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts and printed files of Evarts Boutell Greene, 1870-1947, De Witt Clinton Professor of History at Columbia. The papers deal mostly with his academic career as a history professor at University of Illinois and at Columbia; his activities in various professional and social organizations; and, to a lesser extent, his travels, studies, and personal and family matters. Among the major correspondents are such public figures as Louis D. Brandeis, Felix Frankfurter, and Jean Jules Jusserand; and such prominent historians as James Truslow Adams, Henry Steele Commager, Samuel Eliot Morison, Richard B. Morris, and Allan Nevins.

For complete lists of contents and catalogued correspondence, see verso and following pages.
