

Halsband, Robert, 1914-

Papers, 1708-1976.

23 linear ft. (ca. 8,300 items in 50 boxes & 2 oversize items)

Biography: Robert Halsband, scholar, author, and authority on 18th century literary studies. Halsband was adjunct professor of English at Columbia University, 1963-1967 (Columbia University A.M., 1936). Professor Halsband died in 1989.

Summary: Personal and professional papers including correspondence, manuscripts, documents, diaries, journals, photographs, and printed materials relating to his teaching at various universities, his literary studies and writings, and his professional activities in such organizations as the Modern Language Association and P.E.N. His correspondents include contemporary authors such as Edmund Blunden, Christopher Hassall, Louis Kronenberger; scholars such as James P. Clifford, Leon Edel, and A.L. Rowse. There are also some letters collected by Halsband, including those by Mrs Piozzi, John Wilkes (1727-1797) and John Stuart, 3rd Earl of Bute (1713-1792). Among the manuscripts are notes, drafts, typescripts, and proofs of his Life of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu (Oxford, 1956) and Complete Letters of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu (Oxford, 1965-1967). Also, manuscripts and typescripts of Halsband's diaries, journals, lectures, articles, book reviews, and essays. There is also a journal in the hand of Lady Eleanor Butler (1739-1829). The printed materials include ephemera, books, and offprints by Halsband and books by other authors inscribed to him. There is a watercolor portrait of Halsband by Stephen Andrews, London, ca. 1966.

Organization: Selected materials cataloged, remainder is organized by topics.

Finding aids: Contents list, 26 p.

Collections related by provenance: Ruth Alice Halsband Papers.
