DESCRIPTION:

Collection consists of letters written to James Ripley Wellman Hitchcock (1857-1918) American art critic, editor and historian; to Mrs. Hitchcock; and to Richard Henry Stoddard from various people in literary artistic and dramatic circles, mainly of New York. There are letters and documents relating to Hitchcock's early life, photographs, a group of materials relating to the American Art Alliance in which Mrs. Hitchcock was interested, and a group of miscellaneous papers and letters relating to the publication, dramatization, filming and radio rights of Edward W. Westcott's David Harum which Mr. Hitchcock was instrumental in having published.

For a list of correspondents see following pages

JAN 1955

Sargent, Charles Chapin (brother of Mrs. Ripley Hitchcock).

2 boxes, 2 scrapbooks, 2 pictures, Columbia College diploma (see Map Case)

Collection consists of manuscripts and printed versions of Mr. Sargent's writings, namely short stories and a libretto for an operetta, "Cleopatra," written for the Columbia College Musical Society in 1897. The scrapbooks contain mementos of his college years.
