

Hough, Henry Beetle, 1896-

Papers, 1841-1996.

24.5 linear ft. (ca.19,220 in 53 boxes & 2 oversize folders).

Biography: H.B. Hough (Columbia University School of Journalism, B.Litt. 1918) and his wife, Elizabeth Bowie Hough, 1894-1965 (Columbia University School of Journalism, B.Litt. 1919), were co-owners, publishers, and editors of the Vineyard Gazette (Martha's Vineyard, MA) from 1920 until 1965. H.B. Hough was the author of many books of essays on Martha's Vineyard and on editing a country newspaper, as well as the author of short stories and magazine articles. The Houghs sold the Vineyard Gazette to James Reston in 1965, although H.B. Hough continued editing and writing for the weekly journal until 1983. He was married in 1979 to Edith Graham Blake and died in 1985.

Summary: Correspondence, manuscripts, typescripts, research files, documents, printed materials, photographs, and memorabilia of Mr and Mrs Hough. Correspondence includes both personal and business letters, dealing with wildlife conservation, civic interests, and birding. There is some correspondence of George A. Hough, Sr., father of H.B. Hough, who was editor of the New Bedford Evening Standard. Most of the correspondence is arranged alphabetically, by personal name or subject, out-going and incoming filed together. Henry and Elizabeth Hough's correspondence, for which there are no incoming or related letters, are filed chronologically. Cataloged correspondents include Calvin Coolidge, Max Eastman, Helen Keller, John F. Kennedy, Emily Post, and James Reston. Manuscripts include appointment books, journals and diaries, manuscripts for book reviews, lecture notes, and radio scripts. Typescripts are primarily of essays, articles, editorials, and books written by H.B. Hough. Research materials include files for Hough's many books and subject files for selected topics of interest to Hough. Documents pertain to the Vineyard Gazette (1938-1986). Photographs are primarily of the Hough family, Hough residences, and Martha's Vineyard scenery. Memorabilia includes materials on Columbia University, certificates and awards, a scrapbook by George A. Hough, and historical materials.

Organization: Selected materials cataloged; remainder arranged as follows Box 1: Cataloged correspondence, A-Z; Box 2-21: Arranged correspondence, A-Z; Box 22-23: Arranged correspondence, 1930-1985; Box 24-25, Arranged correspondence, Business correspondence A-Z; Box 26-32: Manuscripts, A-Z; Box 33-40: Research materials; Box 41-44: Printed materials; Box 45: Photographs; Box 46-47: Memorabilia; Box 48-50: Printed books by Hough; & Oversize folders in Map Case 14-15-10.
