

COLLECTIONS OF CORRESPONDENCE AND MANUSCRIPT DOCUMENTS

NAME OF COLLECTION: Cassius Jackson Keyser -- PapersSOURCE: Gift of Mrs. Cassius J. Keyser -- 1971SUBJECT: MathematicsDATES COVERED: 1884-1945 NUMBER OF ITEMS: ca. 2,500

STATUS: (check appropriate description)

Cataloged: ☒ Listed: ☐ Arranged: ☒ Not organized: ☐

CONDITION: (give number of vols., boxes, or shelves)

Bound: ☐ Boxed: 10 Stored: ☐LOCATION: (Library) Special Collection CALL-NUMBER Spec Ms Coll
KeyserRESTRICTIONS ON USE ☐

DESCRIPTION:

The letters and manuscripts of Cassius J. Keyser (1862-1947; A.M., 1896; Ph.D., 1901; D.Sci., 1929), who taught mathematics at Columbia from 1897 and was Adrain Professor of Mathematics, 1904-1927. Included are the notes and manuscripts for his lectures, essays, and books, as well as his correspondence with colleagues and mathematicians throughout the world. There are letters from Benjamin N. Cardozo, Alfred Korzybski, Anna Hempstead Branch, James Truslow Adams, and Clarence Day, Jr.

Contents: Correspondence (cataloged) - 1 box
Correspondence (uncat.) - 4 boxes
Manuscripts (uncat.) - 2 boxes
Photographs - 1 box
Printed Materials - 2 boxes