DESCRIPTION: The collection consists of about 525 notes from and relating to the Provençal poet and nationalist, Frédéric Mistral (1830-1914) which he sent to Edmond Lefevre to aid him in his bibliographic work on Mistral and the language and literature of Provence. A descriptive notation at the beginning of the volume reads "524 fiches (environ 4,500 indications) autographes de Frédéric Mistral dont plusieurs contiennent de nombreux indications. Notes écrites de la main même de Frédéric Mistral pour signaler à M. Lefevre les documents composant la Bibliographie Mistralienne et ses autres publications bibliographiques. - Livres, brochures, articles de journaux, revues, etc. Français et étrangers." The notes are written on full sheets, half sheets, and scraps of paper. Also included in the collection is some memorabilia relating to ceremonies honoring Mistral particularly the Nobel Prize Ceremonies in 1904. The material is all mounted on the blank leaves of 1 volume.
