DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, financial records, memorabilia and printed materials of James Graham Phelps Stokes, 1872-1960 (M.D., P&S 1896) socialist and philanthropist. The papers relate to the numerous organizations--social, political, civic, and philanthropic--with which he was associated. Among these organizations are Legal Aid Society, Prison Association of New York, Outdoor Recreation League, Socialist Democratic League and National Party, American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, Constitutional Democracy Association, National Security League, YMCA, etc. Included among the papers are his journals and diaries, 1884-1950. An incomplete set of his letterbooks 1905-1960 and some family papers relating to real estate and financial matters. Among the more than 1,600 cataloged letters there is correspondence with people associated with organizations to which Stokes also belonged, such as Marcellus Hartley Dodge and May Matthews; Hartley House; Samuel Barrows and William Marshall Pitts Round, Prison Association of New York; William Henry Baldwin and Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee Institute; Charles Edward Russell, John Spargo and William English Walling, Social Democratic League; and Charles B. Stover, Outdoor Recreation League. There are also letters from Pearl Buck, John Dewey, Theodore Dreiser, Hamlin Garland, Sol Hurok, Helen Keller, Rockwell Kent, Robert Moses, Anna Pavlova, Jacob Riis, Upton Sinclair and Lillian Wald.
