DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence regarding the production of the plays "Intimate Strangers" and "Magnolia" by the American novelist and dramatist, Booth Tarkington (1869-1946). There are 12 holograph letters, one detail sketch for a costume, and one page of manuscript, and one page of typescript notes by Tarkington as well as 13 telegrams sent by him. The letters and telegrams are all addressed to Mr. Ira A. Hards, director of the plays. In addition there are copies of seven telegrams by Hards and one by the producer, A. L. Erlanger, all but one of which are addressed to Mr. Tarkington. Also in the collection are carbon copies of four letters from Hards and Erlanger to Tarkington, two items concerned with book production and dramatic rights of "The Intimate Strangers" and one theatre program.
