DESCRIPTION: The papers of Georgii V. Dmitrenko (-1964), former advocate of the Moscow judicial okrug and political activist in the emigration, consisting entirely of manuscripts and notes in Russian. There is an untitled manuscript, a 712 page political tract, which deals with world events since 1914 in a strongly anti-Communist spirit, as well as several drafts of a second treatise on a similar subject, which might have been intended by the author as a continuation of the first. This has been labelled "The Contemporary World Crisis", after the title of its first chapter in all but one version. Also included are: multiple drafts of several shorter pieces on political-historical subjects; a few such pieces included in a single version only; a number of reports written to be delivered at emigre political congresses, chiefly those of the All-Russian National Union (Rossiiskoe Natsional'noe Ob"edinenie); and some notes and jottings.
For a list of the contents of each of the numbered stenographer's notebooks in which most of the manuscripts are written, see the list compiled by Dmitrenko's literary executor, P. Sokolov, in Box 2.

G.V. Dmitrenko: Box List

(Note: the numbers listed in parentheses to the right of each entry are those of the stenographer's notebooks included in that folder. P. Sokolov's list of the contents of the collection is ordered in a sequence based on these numbers.)
