DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, case files, and printed materials of Alexis Goldenweiser, i.e. Aleksei Aleksandrovich Gol'denveizer (1890-1979), lawyer and writer. Born in Kiev, he emigrated to Germany in the early 1920s, and then to the United States in the late 1930s. He served as legal counsellor for the Union of Russian Jews in Germany and later as president of the Association of Russian Lawyers in New York.

This collection chiefly consists of his American legal case files. There are also case files from his German years, and substantial materials on his research into the condition of Russian refugees and refugee problems in general in the 1930s; much of the correspondence from the late 1930s and early 1940s concerns Jews in Germany and occupied Europe. Correspondents in the collection include Mark Aldanov, Abraham Cahan, Antal Dorati, Georgii Florovskii, Tat'iana Frank, Vladimir & Vera Nabokov, and Mikhail Karpovich; there are 1 or 2 items each from Dwight D. Eisenhower, Eleanor Roosevelt, Herbert Lehman, and Nikolai Losskii. Letters, manuscripts, and documents by Vera Nabokova contain considerable information on her and her husband's lives in Germany and in the United States. Many of the American case files concern (as does much of the Nabokova material) individual claims for reparations from Germany after World War II.
