NAME OF COLLECTION: Gleb Alekseevich BENZEMAN Papers

SOURCE: Gift of G.A. Benzeman, 1970-77

SUBJECT: Emigre Monarchism: Military History

DATES COVERED: 1930-1977 NUMBER OF ITEMS: 10

STATUS: (check appropriate description)
Cataloged: ___ Listed: ___ Arranged: X Not organized: ___

CONDITION: (give number of vols., boxes, or shelves)
Bound: _____ Boxed: X Stored: _____

LOCATION: (Library) BAP CALL-NUMBER Gen Ms Coll/Benzeman

RESTRICTIONS ON USE None

DESCRIPTION: Papers of Gleb A. Benzeman (1898- ), largely concerning Russian military history and the emigre monarchist movement. The collection includes: two letters: typescripts on such themes as military education before World War I, the Benzeman family, and the kidnapping of General A.P. Kutepov in 1930; a pamphlet entitled Imperator Nikolai II (no author, published in Germany in 1948); and a binder entitled "Iz krasivoro proshlovo imperatorskoi Rossi" consisting of clippings of articles written by Benzeman.