Papers of Pavel S. Krasnikov (1882-1939), editor of Russkaia Zhizn' in San Francisco in the 1920s and 1930s. The papers consist of reports, printed materials, and photographs. Included are reports of Russian military operations in July-September 1916; Krasnikov's military service record; and photographs from World War I. There are also two photographs which concern the Russian community in San Francisco in the 1920s. Printed materials consist of articles and a book by Krasnikov, Taina belogo doma (Troitsk, 1918), written under his pseudonym, P. Karelin.
