DESCRIPTION:
Correspondence, manuscripts, financial records, photographs, subject files, and printed materials of Aleksandr P. Kutepov (1882-1930), Imperial and White army general who served as head of the Russian Universal Military Union (Russkii Obshche-Voinskii Soiuz) in 1929-30, and was then kidnapped by Soviet agents. Correspondence consists chiefly of consolatory letters to his wife after his abduction; there are also letters to Kutepov from other White generals, such as Petr Wrangel and Pavel Shatilov. The financial records appear to be of the Military Union in 1924-29. Subject files concern such topics as Ataman Semenov and the Civil War in the Far East, the Civil War in the south, and the remnants of the White army in Gallipoli and Bulgaria in 1921-22. Printed materials include emigre books and periodicals, a number of them concerning the Eurasian movement (evraziistvo).
