DESCRIPTION:
Papers of Evgenii V. Maslovskii (1877-~~ca. 1965?~~), general in the Imperial and White armies, consisting of correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, and subject files. Maslovskii served in the Caucasus region during World War I and the Civil War; he was the author of Mirovaia voina na Kavkazskom fronte, 1914-1917g. (Paris, 1933). After leaving Russia he lived in Nice, where he directed the library of the Russian Orthodox cathedral. Among the correspondents are Mark Aldanov, General Nikolai Iudenich, and many former Russian officers. Manuscripts consist largely of Maslovskii's bound typescript memoirs, "Nekotorye stranitsy moei zhizni" (ca. 2200p.); the manuscript version of the first six volumes of the memoirs is also included, as is a memoir about his service in Persia in 1909-1914. Subject files include correspondence, manuscripts, and printed materials about his research on World War I, his book, General Iudenich, and other topics.
