DESCRIPTION: Papers of Evgenii S. Onopko(1889-195?), a Ukrainian civilian official (chinovnik) attached to General Markov's White Army regiment. He emigrated to Prague after the Civil War, then later moved to Paris. The collection consists of diaries, some on the way of the Zmiyevskii uезд of the Kharkov region, and printed materials. Diaries by Onopko cover the Civil War period from March 13, 1920 to March 25, 1922, and span from his service in the Kharkov area to his emigration to Prague. The diaries also concern Onopko's years in emigration in France from 1930 to 1944. Documents are mostly from the Civil War period. Printed materials consist of a clipping and printed drawing.
