DESCRIPTION: The Research Program on the USSR was sponsored by the East European Fund, Inc., and operated at Columbia in 1950-1955. It commissioned manuscripts by different people on various aspects of the history and development of the USSR. It was directed by Philip E. Mosely, with Alexander Dallin and Robert Slusser as Associate Directors. Many of the manuscripts deal with World War II and the post-war period. Other works concern the following areas: (1) religious persecution and anti-religious propaganda; (2) the history of the Communist Party and the Komsomol; (3) industrial development; (4) agriculture, forestation and natural resources; (5) Soviet science and technical institutes; (6) the literature and history of national minorities; (7) theater, music and film industries; (8) Russian literature; (9) geology, zoology, mining, biology, chemistry, genetics; (10) urban construction and housing.

For list of collection see register and card file.

PLEASE NOTE!

This register has two lists of manuscripts. The first is a complete alphabetical listing, by author, of all manuscripts which are now in this collection. The second list is an incomplete subject guide to manuscripts of the Research Program, some of which are not now in the Archive's holdings.
