DESCRIPTION: The papers of Valerii F. Salatko-Petrishche (1913- ) consist of correspondence, manuscripts and printed materials. There are letters from N. P. Avtonomov and Aleksandr Bisk as well as copies of Salatko-Petrishche's letters to Lidia Iulianovna Khaindrova. Salatko-Petrishche was in China from 1939-1943 as part of a Russian religious mission, and many of his manuscripts concern the Russian emigre colonies in Harbin, Shanghai and Peking. There is a bibliography of Salatko-Petrishche's works (including his own poetry and translations from both Chinese and Portuguese poetry) and several essays discussing religious affairs in the Far East. In addition, there is a manuscript about the Toplovskii Monastery written by M. Paraskeva and a copy of Salatko-Petrishche's book Ariel (written under the pseudonym Valerii Pereleshin), a collection of poetry published in 1976.
