DESCRIPTION:

Papers of Aleksandr K. Shervashidze (1867-1968), artist. Shervashidze designed decors for the Imperial Theaters in St. Petersburg, and for theaters in Paris and Brussels; he also collaborated with Diaghilev's Ballets Russes. These papers consist of correspondence, manuscripts, documents, art works, printed material, and a photograph, and relate chiefly to Russian artists and ballet personalities active in France in the 1920s and 1930s. Records of the Parisian World of Art (Mir Iskusstva) group, of which Shervashidze was the president, include correspondence, documents, an exhibit program, clippings and a photograph of the artists involved. There is correspondence from Lev Bakst, Ivan Bilibin, Sergei Diaghilev, Mikhail Larionov, Georgii Lukomskii, and Joan Miró, and one letter each from Nikolai Roerich, and Nataliia Goncharova. There are also many letters from Shervashidze's family in the Soviet Union from the 1920s and 1930s. Illustrative materials by Shervashidze include programs, prints and water colors.
