DESCRIPTION:

Materials, chiefly printed, collected by historian and bibliographer Zosa Szajkowski (1911- ), author of Jews and the French Revolutions of 1789, 1830 and 1848 and other works on Franco-Jewish history. The printed materials in this collection are chiefly in Yiddish and Russian; some are in French, Ukrainian, German, Polish, Hebrew, and English. Most are from Russia or the USSR, from such places as Moscow, St. Petersburg, Kiev, and Odessa, from ca. 1905-06 and 1917-20. Most of the items concern the Jews, including some anti-Semitic items; others deal with the revolutionary movement in Russia or with the Civil War. Also included are a few letters by Russian radicals in Paris in 1917, and manuscript materials by Russian Social Democrat A. Lozovskii.

Also in this collection are materials relating to Jews in France in the 1920s and 1930s, chiefly concerning the Jewish Section of the French Communist Party, including correspondence, organizational records, and printed materials.
