DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents and printed materials of Konstantin Arkad'evich Tomilin (1880-1962), teacher in Russian and Soviet secondary schools. There are several letters from Georgii D. Grebenshchikov. The manuscripts--all of which are by Tomilin--include essays, stories and autobiographical writings chiefly devoted to his career as a teacher in Russian and Soviet institutions as well as in DP camps following his emigration to Germany in 1945. The collection also includes his birth certificate and such printed materials as poems by Tomilin, an essay by his wife and a copy of Luch (Salzburg, 1954).
