DESCRIPTION: Papers of Isidor L. Tsitron (or Zitron; 1886-1957). Tsitron was a lawyer and journalist in pre-revolutionary Russia, and a businessman, teacher, and journalist in the emigration in Europe and the United States. He was for many years a friend and associate of Oskar O. Gruzenberg. This small collection consists of correspondence, a short typescript biography of Tsitron by an unidentified author, and clippings of articles by Tsitron in emigre Russian newspapers. Correspondence includes 1 letter each by Mark Aldanov and Oskar Gruzenberg, and 9 by Vasilii Maklakov.
