DESCRIPTION:
Manuscripts and memoirs of Sergei V. Vakar (1894-1981), who served in the Imperial and White army, emigrated after the Civil War to Yugoslavia, and to Argentina after World War II. The topics with which Vakar chiefly deals include: his military education and service; the role of the cavalry in the Imperial army; emigre military groups in Europe; the Russian Defense Corps (Russkii Okhrannyi Korpus) in Yugoslavia during World War II; and Russian emigré life in Argentina after the war. In addition to the manuscripts and memoirs, there are several posters and maps drawn by Vakar on military topics.
