

Valkenier, Elizabeth Kridl, 1926-
 Papers, 1961-84.
 Ca. 1100 items; (8 boxes, 1 oversized folder).

Organization: Selected items cataloged; remainder arranged.

Professor of political science and Russian history at Columbia University's Harriman Institute, author of "Russian Realist Art" and "The USSR and the 3rd World."

Summary: The papers include a long letter by Anna Staniewska discussing Maciej S_omczy_nski's Polish translations of Shakespeare, with related correspondence of Czes_aw Mi_osz. There is correspondence, and a manuscript by Valkenier concerning the 1961 publication in the Polish emigre press of Russian underground authors I. Ivanov and Abram Tertz. The extensive subject files are primarily concerned with 20th century Polish history, historiography and the Solidarity movement. There is a section on the 1959 U.S. Exhibit in Moscow and a number of Polish theatrical posters. Most of the books are in Polish and concern Polish history and historiography.

In English and Polish.

Gift of Elizabeth Valkenier, 1986-1987.

Valkenier correspondence closed until 1 Jan. 1993.
