

Karpovich, Michael, 1888-1959.
Correspondence, 1900-1959.
ca. 3000 items (7 boxes)

Organization: Selected materials cataloged; remainder arranged.

Michael Karpovich was an employee of the embassy of the Russian Provisional Government in Washington, D.C., professor of Russian history at Harvard University, and editor of "Novyi zhurnal."

Summary: Correspondence and subject files of Russian-American historian Michael Karpovich include letters from former ministers of the Russian Provisional Government Alexander Kerensky, Aleksandr Guchkov, and the Provisional Government's ambassador to the United States, Boris Bakhmeteff. There are letters from Social Revolutionaries Nikolai Avksent_ev and Vladimir Zenzinov, Mensheviks Boris Nikolaevsky and Nikola_i Vol'ski_i, and extensive correspondence with contemporary historians such as Michael Florinsky, Serge_i Pushkarev, George Vernadsky, and Karpovich's students who included Marc Raeff and Richard Pipes. Much of the correspondence concerns Karpovich's involvement in emigre affairs and the promotion of Russian studies in the United States including such institutions as the Bakhmeteff Archive, the "Novy_i zhurnal" and the Chekhov Publishing House. There is correspondence with prominent authors and literary critics including Mark Aldanov, Ivan Bunin, Alekse_i Remizov, Gleb Struve and Roman Gul_. Of special importance are letters and poems by Vladimir Nabokov. The subject files concern Boris Bakhmeteff, Alexander Kerensky, Vladimir Nabokov and Karpovich's work as editor of Pavel Mil_i_ukov's books. Gift of Serge Karpovich, 1988.

Karpovich Description (Series 2)

Karpovich, Michael, 1888 - 1959

Correspondence, 1930 - 1959

ca. 16,600 items (34 boxes)

Organization: Selected correspondence and manuscripts cataloged; remainder arranged.

Summary: Correspondence, manuscripts, lecture notes, subject files, printed materials and clippings. Cataloged materials include correspondence and/or manuscripts from prominent historians Geroge Vernadsky and Sergei Pushkarev, writers Maria Germanova and Pavel Miliukov, as well as translations by Oscar Jaszi. Karpovch's cataloged correspondence also contains letters from Presidents Kennedy and Truman. Personal correspondence is arranged chronologically; professional correspondence deals with the Harvard Slavic Department, Professor Karpovich's various students, and the Russian Review. The collection also contains separate Novy Zhurnal correspondence and manuscripts. The detailed lecture notes on Russian History in English and Russian cover the years 1935 - 1957. There are also notes on non-Russian subjects. Subject files include Karpovich's bibliography cards and material on Russian archives and organizations. Printed materials and clippings have to do with Slavic Studies.
