

Ford Foundation International Fellowship Program Records

 COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES/INFORMATION SERVICES ▾ Help ▾

 FORD FOUNDATION INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM RECORDS All Fields ▾ Q

ABOUT THE IFP

The IFP program began in November 2000 with four pilot sites. In Asia, the program was initiated in Vietnam. In Africa, the first competition was held in West Africa (Ghana, Nigeria and Senegal). In Latin America, IFP began in the Andean Region as Southern Cone (Chile and Peru). Russia was the final pilot site. The first 96 Fellows from these countries were named in 2001. In February 2002, 173 new Fellows from the pilot site countries and from India, China, Kenya

ABOUT THE COLLECTION

The archives cover the issues of social justice, community development, and access to higher education, and include paper and digital documentation and audiovisual materials on the more than 3,300 IFP fellows as well as comprehensive planning and administrative files of the program.

BROWSE DIGITAL RECORDS

Link to DLC-IFP

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS

 Brazil	 Chile	 China	 Egypt
 Ghana	 Guatemala	 India	 Indonesia
 Kenya	 Mexico	 Mozambique	 Nigeria

IFP Content

- Records from 21 international partners and Secretariat
- 509 linear feet of paper records
- 350,000+ digital files
- 250+ data file formats
- Content in 10 languages
- Content in 7 non-Roman character sets

IFP: More to Come

IFP Research Awards Program: Scholars and researchers will be invited to submit applications to use the IFP archives. Six awards will be granted on a competitive basis based on a demonstrated need to consult the IFP archives for their work.

Spring Symposium: In celebration of the opening of the print archive, a symposium will be held where participants will provide historical and programmatic context for the work of IFP.

National Event: A national funder convening hosted by Ford at Columbia.

Thank you for your support!

