The Governor of New York and Mrs. Lehman extend sincere thanks to the President of the World's Fair, 1939, and Mrs. Whalen for the kind invitation to be present at the luncheon in honor of the Governor of Vermont and Mrs. Aiken, on Sunday, the second of July, at one o'clock, at Perylon Hall, but regret other engagements of long standing make it impossible for them to be present.

June twenty-eighth 1939.
