Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

November 25, 1950

Hon. Herbert H. Lehman,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

The people of New York are to be congratulated on their good common sense in reelecting you to the United States Senate. In an election which brought too many setbacks to us Democrats, your fine victory constituted the most significant evidence that progressive forces were not asleep everywhere.

I should like to add my most sincere personal congratulations to the thousands you must have already received.

Sincerely yours,

E. L. Bartlett
