RESAN TRIBUNE calls today "The Time of the Wise Old Men." Exhibits: West Germany's Adenauer, 83; House Speaker Rayburn, 77; Winston Churchill, 84; Herbert Hoover, 84; Frank Lloyd Wright, 89; Bernard Baruch, 88; and Sen. Green (D.R.I.), 91. "Some men look and act old at 50. Others never seem to tire or wither."

DAILY NEWS: Gov. Rockefeller talked of "stringent economy" in December, so we hope that promise has not slipped his mind, now that he is talking of higher state taxes. This "is hardly likely to endear him to many New Yorkers."

MIRROR speculates about the visit here of Soviet Deputy Prime Minister. "The idea is to set it up in a quick change, see?"
