Mr. Justice Burton
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington 13, D. C.

My dear Mr. Justice Burton:

Mrs. Lehman and I were sincerely sorry that we were unable to come to the reception which you and Mrs. Burton gave in honor of Ambassador Warren Robinson Austin and Mrs. Austin yesterday. We had planned to go, and Mrs. Lehman was in the Senate Gallery, waiting to pick me up. Unfortunately, the Senate did not recess until seven when, of course, it was too late to come to the reception, to which we had much looked forward.

With kind personal regards,

Yours very sincerely,
