Honorable Herbert H. Lehman
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Lehman:

I notice that the Republicans had a breakfast party preliminary to the adjournment of Congress. Rather than spend the money for a similar Democratic affair at this time, we intend to make the cost of such a party available to the Congressional Campaign Committee for the important battle in 1956.

We at the Committee feel that the work of the first session of the 84th Congress has been productive of much good. We are confident that after the conclusion of the second session of the 84th Congress next year the complete Democratic record will be an impressive one of constructive legislation in the best interests of the American people and will be a solid foundation upon which to build Democratic victory in 1956.

We have great confidence in the leadership of our Party in both Houses of the Congress but good leadership is effective in bringing about desired results only with the finest spirit of cooperation and good will among all of the Democrats in each House. It is apparent that such Democratic teamwork has been the rule in this session.

Permit me to express to you my personal appreciation and the thanks of a grateful Party for your contribution to the growing confidence and respect of the American people for the Democratic Party.

Best wishes for a most enjoyable vacation.

Sincerely,

Paul M. Butler
