my dear Joseph Lehman,

Recently obtained some very sad intelligence. Permit me to extend heartfelt condolences. Though the blow for you and for Mr. Lehman must be a heavy one, I am sure that you will find some measure of consolation in the knowledge that Peter died so gloriously for a country and a cause which he dearly loved. It is alleviatory news, though it was, he shall now rest in peace under the care of a great family. May the Almighty give you strength in these trying times.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Cohn
Associate Justice
April 17th 1944

My dear Joseph Lehman,

Recently I learned of your very sad bereavement. Permit me to extend our felt condolences. Though the blow for you and for us, Lehman, must be a heavy one, I am sure that you will find some measure of consolation in the knowledge that Peter died so gloriously for a country and a cause which he dearly loved. His illustrious career, brief though it was, has left new laurels and honor upon the name of a great family. May the Almighty give you strength in these times of grief.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Cohn
Associate Justice